

We had 119 riders at the Chris Collins Concert at the Sunset Dinner Train last Saturday night. Here is a sample of what's to come:

August 1st- Ed Stabler- Guitarist and Crooner – Ed Stabler is a singer and guitarist, well known for his rich singing voice and smooth, finger-picking guitar style. A Colorado ranch background and the gift of a guitar at age ten got him started singing old cowboy songs in his early life.

August 8th- Ed Stabler- Guitarist and Crooner

August 15th- “A Tribute to John Denver” with Chris Collins – If you are a true John Denver fan, you will not want to miss any of these performances. Hear “Rocky Mountain High”, “Country Road”, “Fly Away”, “Annie’s Song, and “Leavin’ on a Jet Plane” in the true fashion of John Denver.

August 22nd- Tim Sullivan- Cowboy Crooner – Tim Sullivan, singer/songwriter, has been a featured performer with Vince Gill, Willie Nelson, Alan Jackson, Tammy Wynette, and Glen Campbell. He has entertained at venues across the country from “The Crazy Horse” in Los Angeles to “Town Hall” on Broadway in New York City.

August 29th- Syd Masters and Lonnie Ohta-Mayer – Syd Masters is an award-winning singer and songwriter of traditional western music. He takes pride in keeping the Old West alive through traditional cowboy music and songwriting.

September 5th- “El Norteno”- Amarante Casias – “We’ve heard tales that the notorious dastardly CRESCO GANG just might be rollin’ through town September 5th or September 12th when the Marshal is planning to carry precious loads on the train,” so hold on to your fine ladies and your wallets, gentlemen; you never know what might take place.

September 12th- “El Norteno”- Amarante Casias

September 19th- Syd Masters and Lonnie Ohta-Mayer- The New Mexico Music Industry has nominated him for more than 40 awards over the past 15 years. “Vocalist of the Year”, “Country Song of the Year,” “Best Album,” “Best Band,” “Most Humorous Song,” and some of the categories in which he won.

September 26th- “A Tribute to John Denver” with Chris Collins – Last Sunset Dinner Train for the year!
